Industrial Committees for Sick Public Sector Units

496. DR. RATNAKAR PANDEY :

SHRI BEKAL UTSAHI:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to set up industrial committees to go into the cases of each of the 58 chronically sick public sector units and suggest appropriate policy guidelines to deal with them; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI PABAN SINGH GHATOWAR): (a) and (b) The Special Tripartite Committee constituted to consider the impact of the new Industrial Policy on the problems affecting labour and other related matters in its meetings recommended that certain Industrial Committees should be revived, or constituted if none exists, for the industries concerned in respect of those industries where the number of sick units is large such as Road Transport Corporations, State ElectricityBoards, Engineering Industry, Textiles, Jute etc. and these Industrial Committees
